

The Dogwood Collection

Columbus Park of Roses
Recreation and Parks Department
Columbus, OH

2021

You can enjoy these specimens on a self-guided tour of the Columbus Park of Roses. For locations, consult map in free brochure located in dispensers on garden kiosks.

Depending on species, you'll find these trees and shrubs flowering late winter through early summer. Enjoy their spectacular foliage and berry displays in autumn through early winter.

Pagoda Dogwood

Cornus alternifolia

- Native
- Large shrub or small tree
- Alternate leaves
- Small white flowers
- Blueish/black fruit borne in clusters

Location: North of West Entrance to Formal Rose Garden

Kousa Dogwood — Characteristics of next seven specimens

Cornus kousa

- Native to Japan, Korea and China
- Small tree
- Opposite leaves
- Bark matures to a patchy mosaic of gray, tan and brown
- Small flowers with four showy bracts
- Fruits are pinkish/red, red and gold; one half to one inch in diameter, resembling a pendulous stalk

Kousa Dogwood

Cornus kousa

'Summer Gold'

Location: Backyard Garden

Kousa Dogwood

Cornus kousa
'Milky Way'

Location: Herb Garden

Kousa Dogwood

Cornus kousa
'Celestial Shadow'

Location: East of
Wedding Mall

Kousa Dogwood

Cornus kousa
'Greensleeves'

Location: East of
Wedding Mall

Kousa Dogwood

Cornus kousa
'Satomi'

Location: East of
Wedding Mall

Kousa Dogwood

Cornus kousa
'Scarlet Fire'

Location: East of
Wedding Mall

Kousa Dogwood

Cornus kousa
'Samaritan'

Location: Heritage
Rose Garden

Cornelian Cherry Dogwood

Cornus mas

- Native to Central and Southern Europe, Western Asia
- Large, multi-stemmed shrub or small tree
- Opposite leaves
- Yellow small flower in late winter
- Bark exfoliating, scaly, flaking
- Bright red, tart, oblong fruit ripens in August

Location: South of Shelterhouse

Japanese Cornel Dogwood

Cornus officinalis

'Kintoki'

- Native to Japan and Korea
- Small tree
- Opposite leaves
- Yellow small flower in late winter; flowers before Cornus mas
- Bark exfoliates with maturity, revealing shades of brown, orange and gray on trunk

Locations: Backyard Garden and Heritage Rose Garden

Redosier Dogwood

Cornus sericea

'Baileyi'

- Native
- Shrub
- Opposite leaves
- Stems colorful in winter
- White flowers
- Fruits in clusters; some cultivars blue, some white

Location: Northwest of Fountain

Redosier Dogwood

Cornus sericea
'Silver and Gold'

- Native
- Shrub
- Opposite leaves
- Stems colorful in winter
- White flowers
- Fruits in clusters; some cultivars blue, some white

Location: Backyard Garden

END